The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

Mr. Herbert A. Gottschalk, Our Lady of Lebanon Maronite Church, Austin, offered the invocation as follows:

O God of love, wisdom and strength, be with us, stay with us, making us one in mind and heart with You and with one another. Grant to these Thy servants who are gathered here clearness of mind, sincerity and honesty of heart, integrity of conscience and deep commitment to duty. May their discussions and deliberations and judgments result, in conformity with Your will, in true and practical benefit for all Thy people in the State of Texas by and for whom they were elected and whom they now represent. O God, our Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier, let not narrowness of vision, the handicaps of prejudice, selfishness and limited interests prevent them from serving the common and individual good of all the people in this State. Help them to resist pressures from any individual or group who may seek unfair and unjust advantages, while at the same time listening to pleas for true justice and fairness and ethical morality. Please, Lord, keep them and all people ever conscious of Thy loving presence and of our responsibilities to Thee and one another.

In loving acceptance of Thy holy will and through the merits and in the name of Jesus Christ, our Saviour, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever, we ask that You hear and grant our prayer and fulfill our needs as they are known to You, our Heavenly Father. Amen.
